OKLAHOMA STATE REGENTS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

From: Bryce Fair & Carolyn McCoy

Highlights This Week:

State Regents Announce Initiative to Increase College Graduates by 2010: The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education today approved a plan to increase the number of college graduates in Oklahoma to the national average by the year 2010. The new initiative is called Brain Gain 2010: Building Oklahoma Through Intellectual Power. A press release discussing the plan is available on the State Regents' homepage at <http://www.okhighered.org/whatsnew/index.html>. In addition, a full report and a summary brochure are available at <http://www.okhighered.org/studiesreports.html>.

Senate Deadline for Introduction of Bills Passes: The Senate deadline to introduce bills was yesterday, Thursday, January 28. We have added almost 70 new bills to the tracking list this week. To see a list of all the new bills, go to the section entitled "Bills Added to the List" on page 2. We are still searching through each introduced bill to identify those that may affect higher education. We expect that more bills will be added to our list next week. To review a text of any bill, go to: <http://www.lsb.state.ok.us/docs/billtext.html>.
