

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Friday, March 5, 1999

OKLAHOMA STATE REGENTS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

From: Bryce Fair & Carolyn McCoy

Highlights This Week:

Senate Rejects Tuition Authorization Bill, Author Lodges Reconsideration Motion: On Wednesday, the Senate turned down a bill that would have allowed the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education to develop a four-year tuition plan. The bill, SB 706 by Sen. Penny Williams (D – Tulsa), called for a multi-year plan to enable students and parents to plan for future tuition increase. The plan would have been submitted to the Legislature by January 1, 2000. Unless disapproved by the Legislature, the plan would have gone into effect for academic years 2001-2002 through 2004-2005.

The vote against the bill was 19 yes and 27 no, and did not follow political party lines. The Republican vote was evenly split (8 yes, 7 no) while a majority of Democrat Senators opposed the bill (11 yes, 20 no).

Sen. Williams lodged a motion that allows her to ask the Senate to reconsider the bill within three legislative days. She has until next Tuesday, March 9, to exercise this option.

Campus Security Bill Reconsidered, Amended and Passed: SB 517 (by Sen. Jim Maddox, D – Lawton), rejected by the Senate last week, was revived and passed this week after the author made changes to the bill. The bill originally sought to expand the authority of campus security officials to remove individuals from college grounds. The amendments narrowed the conditions under which a person could be removed. The Senate agreed to reconsider the bill and then passed the amended bill by a vote of 31 yes, 11 no.

Faculty Notification Bill Passes Senate: On Monday, the Senate approved SB 382, by Sen. Bernest Cain (D – Oklahoma City), by a vote of 31 yes, 14 no. The bill would require college officials, when requested by the faculty member, to provide reasons to full-time faculty for employment decisions within seven working days. The bill would also require institutional governing boards to establish an appeals process. The vote on the bill fell almost strictly along party lines with Democrats voting yes (30 Democrats, 1 Republican) and Republicans voting no (13 Republicans, 1 Democrat). The text of the bill can be found at: http://www2.lsb.state.ok.us/1999-00SB/sb382_sflr.rtf .
