

Campus Compact

10 Reasons to Renew with Campus Compact

Join more than 1,100 college & university presidents working to advance the public purposes of higher education.

See reverse to find out what others have to say about Campus Compact.

- 1 Trusted resources for presidents, faculty, administrators, students, and staff, with extensive print and online tools for connecting campuses and communities

- 2 Successful models for community engagement, including thousands of exemplary practices and syllabi across disciplines and institutional types

- 3 Funding for campus-based community outreach, with more than $13 million raised by our national and state offices in FY06 alone

- 4 Value and visibility for presidents, including national gatherings, influential public statements, special bulletins, and forums for promoting the public benefit of higher education

- 5 Professional development for administrators and staff, including a national training curriculum and a new award program for community service and service-learning practitioners

- 6 Institutes and workshops designed to help faculty deepen community-based teaching, learning, and research

- 7 Leadership development for students, with national and statewide campaigns, awards, and resources for increasing the effectiveness of engaged work

- 8 Advocacy and policy work at the state and national levels, as well as action alerts and online tools for affecting legislation

- 9 Hands-on guidance from our national office and 33 state offices

- 10 A growing national network of more than 1,100 presidents and chancellors who are committed to building strong communities and educating the next generation of responsible leaders

“ I consider Campus Compact to be one of the most enlightened and farsighted ventures that American colleges and universities have undertaken in recent years. It provides evidence that there are, in the world of higher education, people more than willing to pitch in, people of vision and commitment.”

JOHN GARDNER,
FORMER U.S. SECRETARY OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE AND FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE CARNEGIE CORPORATION

educating citizens
building communities

Campus Compact

Campus Compact is a national coalition of more than 1,100 college and university presidents who are committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education. Campus Compact provides leadership, resources, and advocacy to support civic education, community building, and campus engagement.

For more information about our work, including member services, our state office structure, our resources, and more visit www.compact.org.

Campus Compact
339 Eddy Street
Providence, RI 02903
(401) 867-3950
www.compact.org

“Campus Compact is inspiring a new era of civic engagement within higher education, and more importantly, introducing a new dimension of learning into our students’ lives.”

EDUARDO J. PADRÓN, PRESIDENT, MIAMI DADE COLLEGE

“I know of no other educational organization that has a track record like Campus Compact’s over the past 20 years... It is a phenomenal success, not just in terms of growth in numbers, but in terms of the impact it’s had on communities, on campuses, and on individual lives.”

FRANK RHODES, FORMER PRESIDENT OF CORNELL UNIVERSITY

“Campus Compact has led the way in establishing service-learning as a way of life on campus.”

JAMES B. DWORKIN, CHANCELLOR, PURDUE UNIVERSITY NORTH CENTRAL

“Over the past 20 years, we’ve seen an increase in community service and civic engagement, thanks in large part to Campus Compact.”

JEANNE SHAHEEN, FORMER GOVERNOR OF NEW HAMPSHIRE AND DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE OF POLITICS, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

“Besides providing us with excellent conference and workshop information, Campus Compact continues to give us pertinent data concerning model service-learning courses, resource materials, networking opportunities with colleagues around the country, and a plethora of fascinating publications.”

CALIFORNIA MARITIME ACADEMY

“Being a part of Campus Compact has let us touch the heart and soul of building better communities while improving teaching and learning for faculty and students.”

JAMES A DRAKE, PRESIDENT, BREVARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

“Membership in Campus Compact shows a commitment to making community and public service part of campus life.”

COLLEGES WITH A CONSCIENCE: 81 GREAT SCHOOLS WITH OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT (THE PRINCETON REVIEW, 2005, P. VII)

“Thanks to Campus Compact for all that you have done over the years to nurture the campus service and service-learning movement. When we started at St. A’s 15 years ago there was a feeling among some campuses that we were seeing higher education’s latest ‘flash in the pan.’ Instead it was the beginning of a revolution of ideas and relationships, and you guys have been fueling us all the way.”

DANIEL FORBES, DIRECTOR, MEELIA CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE, ST. ANSELM COLLEGE

educating citizens
building communities