Strategies for Institutional Engagement

*A conference for Deans and Chairs and Service-Learning
Coordinators*

Monday, February 4, 2008
Presbyterian Health Foundation
(PHF) Conference Center
Colloquium Room
655 Research Parkway,
1st Floor
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Strategies for Institutional Engagement

This conference will improve the understanding of engagement methodologies in context with the Higher Learning Commissions' Criterion 5 and the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification for Deans and Chairs and Service-Learning Coordinators. Two nationally recognized presenters will create what promises to be a unique and informational conference.

Speakers

Dr. Robert G. Bringle

Chancellor's Professor of Psychology and Philanthropic Studies and Director for the Center for Service and Learning, School of Science, University Graduate School, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Topic: Strengthening Institutional Support for Service-Learning and Civic Engagement

.....

Dr. Amy Driscoll

Associate Senior Scholar

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching

Topic: Findings from Carnegie's 2006 Community Engagement Classification: Implications for Leadership

.....

Opportunities for Insight

A panel session will follow Dr. Bringle's talk to allow participants to gain greater insight on strategies for meeting the requirements of Criterion 5.

A Question and Answer session with Dr. Driscoll following her presentation provides the opportunity for direct insight into issues concerning the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification.

Luncheon Speakers

The luncheon speakers are:

Dr. Kathryn Gage

University of Central Oklahoma

Mr. Josh Krawczyk

Director, Volunteer and Service-Learning
University of Central Oklahoma

Topic of the luncheon presentation:

Convergence in Civic Engagement and Service Learning: A Case Study
