Campus Compact

Campus Compact is a national coalition of almost 1,200 college and university presidents — representing some 6 million students— who are committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education.

We are the only higher education association dedicated solely to campus-based civic engagement. We promote public and community service that develops students' citizenship skills, help campuses build productive community partnerships, and provide resources and training for faculty seeking to integrate civic and community-based learning into the curriculum.

Campus Compact membership includes public, private, two- and four-year institutions across the spectrum of higher education. Our national office is based in Boston, MA with 34 state affiliates. For more information about our work, including member services, resources, publications, convenings, and more, visit www.compact.org.

“I know of no other educational organization that has a track record like Campus Compact’s over the past 20 years...It is a phenomenal success, not just in terms of growth in numbers, but in terms of the impact it’s had on communities, on campuses, and on individual lives.”

FRANK RHODES, PRESIDENT EMERITUS, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

“Campus Compact has led the way in establishing service-learning as a way of life on campus.”

JAMES B. DWORKIN, CHANCELLOR, PURDUE UNIVERSITY NORTH CENTRAL

“Over the past 20 years, we’ve seen an increase in community service and civic engagement thanks in large part to Campus Compact.”

JEANNE SHAHEEN, U.S. SENATOR FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE AND FORMER GOVERNOR OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

“We work from the insight that if you have an education, you have an obligation. The obligation is to use your education to take a good world and make it better. Through Campus Compact, we can help students learn the value of building communities. We can help them turn from self-focused achievement to finding meaning through selfless citizenship. The benefit to our campus is not merely that our civic community is improved. It is that our students graduate with habits of good citizenship they will carry through life.”

MICHAEL J. SHEERAN, S.J., PRESIDENT, REGIS UNIVERSITY

“Membership in Campus Compact shows a commitment to making community and public service part of campus life.”

COLLEGES WITH A CONSCIENCE: 81 GREAT SCHOOLS WITH OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT (THE PRINCETON REVIEW, 2005, P.VII)

“Thanks to Campus Compact for all that you have done over the years to nurture the campus service and service-learning movement. When we started at St. A’s 15 years ago there was a feeling among some campuses that we were seeing higher education’s latest ‘flash in the pan.’ Instead it was the beginning of a revolution of ideas and relationships, and you guys have been fueling us all the way.”

DANIEL FORBES, DIRECTOR, MEELIA CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE, ST. ANSELM COLLEGE

“Campus Compact is such a wonderful force for progress in academic service-learning. I really think that we would be nowhere near where we are today in higher education without your efforts.”

JANET S. EYLER, PROFESSOR OF THE PRACTICE OF EDUCATION, VANDERBILT PEABODY COLLEGE
