

Oklahoma | Campus Compact

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP (2016-2017)

Training and Networking
Site Visits	Meet with members to provide support on their missions, priorities, successes and challenges
Customized Assistance	Includes speaking, leading workshops, resourcing professional development, and serving on planning committees
Workshops and Trainings	Accessible professional development and issue-focused sessions for faculty, staff, students, and community partners
Regional Conferences, National Campus Compact Conference	Bring together leaders from across the region and nation for skill-building and networking
Awards/State Regents Recognition	Recipients are honored, celebrate, and learn from good work across the state
Communication
Website	Disseminate program and grant opportunities, event information, data sources, members' successes
E-newsletter	Share program and opportunity updates, as well as campus highlights, to members and key stakeholders
Specialized Reports	Provide substantial resources on topics of interest to members
Phone/E-mail Communication	Respond to members' requests and inform key contacts of opportunities and resources
Advocacy and Development
Outreach and Advocacy	Inform media about members' programs and impacts to increase awareness and support
Resource Research and Procurement	Research and write grants to support members' community engagement effort
Leadership Opportunities
OkCC Executive Committee	Opportunity for presidents
Planning Committees	Outstanding volunteers shaping events, resource development, and collaborative action
Grant Programs
MLK Day of Service	Service in communities on and around MLK birthday
Newman Civic Fellows	Scholarships and recognition of students for service to their community
State Conferences and Heartland Regional Conference	Stipend to presenters and participants for registration and travel, lodging
Positive Engagement Fund	Catalyze experimental responses to challenges arising from new climate of polarization for shared learning and strategies.
Past Grants	AmeriCorps VISTA, NSF EPSCoR/SENCER STEM, AmeriCorps Students in Service, MLK Day of Service

Oklahoma | Campus Compact

SELECT OPPORTUNITIES FOR MEMBER CAMPUSES (2016-2017)

Grants and Scholarships	Stipend for faculty and administrators presenting at Civic Action Plan Institute and Heartland Regional Conference, Newman Civic Fellows Scholarship, Service-Learning Incentive Grants
Campus Compact Annual Membership Survey of Service Statistics	Annual dashboard for community engagement, opportunity to participate in and access comparative data at the state, national and institutional-type level, stimulates intra-institutional communication
Community Lens Conference, Civic Action Plan Institute, Heartland Regional Conference, Oklahoma Service-Learning Conference, OkCC Annual Workshop	Annual professional development opportunities, chances for members to share their good work and discuss key issues, issue-focused convenings, dialogue with and learn from leaders and experts, guidance on strategizing with community partners
OkCC State Awards	Recognition for community engagement professionals, community partnerships, and teaching and scholarship
Student Awards	Newman Civic Fellow scholarship for service, Voter Registration
Civic Education	Campus Vote Initiative, resources and guidance for civic activities
Information Sharing	Quarterly email newsletter and website with highly valued resources including opportunities for grants, presenting, and publishing – ongoing
Customized Assistance	We encourage members to contact us if we might be helpful in presenting at on-campus workshops, facilitating discussions or retreats, serving on search or advisory committees, identifying useful models or resources, answering questions or listening to ideas, etc. – available any time upon request
Carnegie Community Engagement Classification and President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll	In collaboration with the national Campus Compact network, opportunities for campus leaders to connect with peers and field leaders around efforts to deepen and institutionalize community engagement, support in applying for the Carnegie classification
Resources	Access to Campus Compact webinars and materials

For more information on any of these opportunities, please contact Debbie Terlip, Executive Director of Oklahoma Campus Compact, at dterlip@osrhe.edu or 405-225-9128.