Senate Committee to Hear Faculty Employment Bill: The Senate Education Committee is scheduled to consider SB 382, by Sen. Bernest Cain (D – Oklahoma City), on Monday, February 15. The bill is similar to one considered in the 1998 session. The bill would require college officials, when requested by the faculty member, to provide reasons to full-time faculty for employment decisions within seven working days. The bill also would require institutional governing boards to establish an appeals process. The text of the bill can be found at http://www.lsb.state.ok.us/docs/sb382_int.rtf.

HB 1003X (Rice/Easley) - OIL PRODUCTION TAX/EDUCATION CAPITAL FUNDS. Relates to lowering the gross production tax rate on oil production; provides that revenues from oil production at 4-percent and 7-percent rates in excess of the amounts apportioned to schools and counties will be divided between funds for common education capital improvements and higher education capital improvements. The floor substitute changes the new funds being created and allocation of gross production tax funds. In addition to a common education technology and higher education capital fund the measure creates an Oklahoma Tuition Scholarship Fund and Rural Economic Action Plan fund. When the tax is at 7 percent, the tuition fund, common education fund and higher education capital fund, would be allocated 25.72 percent each; at a 4-percent tax, tuition, education technology and higher education capital would get 22.5 percent each; at 1 percent, revenues would be evenly split to county government and local schools; revenues going into the funds would be capped at $100 million; excess amounts would be deposited in the General Revenue Fund. (62 § 41.29c/41.29e)
