2016 Voter Registration Contest

Congratulations to Oklahoma’s higher education institutions for another year of successful student registration in the Oklahoma Campus Compact Voter Registration Contest! 23 members of Oklahoma Campus Compact participated by registering 3,622 in-state and 136 out-of-state students to vote during the Contest.

Students, staff, faculty and administrators from the seven winning institutions were recognized for their efforts in registering students to vote with awards at the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education December 1st, 2016 meeting.

In-State Student Registration – Small Institutions

For the seventh year running Eastern Oklahoma State College captured first place for the small institutions category by registering 12.2% of its FTE. Pictured below with EOSC President Stephen Smith (far left), State Regents Chair John Massey (second from left), and Chancellor Glen D. Johnson (center, back row) are EOSC students Paige Campagna, Bailee Davis, Alexis Goodwill, Amanda Hawthorne, Zane Johnson and Kayla Ward, along with EOSC administrators Brenda Kennedy and Kellye Semeski.

Rogers State University achieved runner up by registering 6.4% of its FTE. RSU President Larry Rice (center) is pictured accepting the award from State Regents Chair John Massey (left) and Chancellor Glen D. Johnson (right).
In the mid-sized institution category, East Central University won for the third year in a row through registration of 12.2% of its FTE. Dr. Charles Peaden, Assistant Professor of Political Science, accepted the award for ECU. He is pictured here (center), flanked by State Regents Chair John Massey (left) and Chancellor Glen D. Johnson (right).

---

Northern Oklahoma College took runner up by registering 6.3% of its FTE. Show below with State Regents Chair John Massey (far left), NOC President Cheryl Evans (fourth from left), and Chancellor Glen D. Johnson (center front row), are students Karlie Arnold, Avonlea Baird, Johnathan Childers, Jarrett Cook, Madison Kimble and Cale Minx, and administrators Shannon Cunningham, Bradley Jennings, Jason Johnson, Ryan Paul and Diana Watkins.

---

In the large institutions category, the University of Central Oklahoma distinguished itself by upholding its first place spot for the seventh year running, through registration of 3.8% of its FTE. Pictured below with State Regents Chair John Massey (far left), UCO President Don Betz (second from left), and Chancellor Glen D. Johnson (center), are student government president Sinead Maguina, faculty members James Daro, Janelle Grellner, and John Wood, and administrator Myron Pope.
Oklahoma City Community College achieved runner up for large institutions, registering 3.3% of its FTE. Shown in the picture from left to right are: State Regents Chair John Massey, OCCC administrator Erin Logan, Chancellor Glen D. Johnson, and OCCC administrator Lisa Fisher.

Out-of-State Student Registration

The University of Oklahoma helped the greatest number of out-of-state students to register, at 86 students.

Eastern Oklahoma State College helped the greatest proportion, 6.4%, of its out of state students to register.