

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

JAY HELM

Jay Helm, from Tulsa, was appointed as an Oklahoma State Regent by Governor Mary Fallin in May 2013, serving a nine-year term ending in 2022. The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education is the constitutional coordinating board for the Oklahoma colleges and universities responsible for allocating state funds and setting admission standards and academic policies.

Regent Helm is Chairman and CEO of American Residential Group, Ltd., a firm involved in the management and development of multifamily residential properties. Prior to forming American Residential Group, he served for 15 years as the Managing Partner for Lincoln Property Company in the Oklahoma and Arkansas Region.

A native of Missouri, Regent Helm graduated from Tulsa Edison High School and Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

He currently serves on the Board of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, the University Center at Tulsa Board of Directors, the Board of Trustees for OSU Medical Center, the Board of Directors for MapleMark Bank, and the Tulsa Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and Executive Committee. He also served on the Board of Trustees for OSU-Tulsa from 1999 to May 2013 and on the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural & Mechanical Colleges from 2001 to May 2013. Regent Helm is active in a number of civic projects, including the Tulsa Area United Way.

Regent Helm and his wife, Fayenelle, have one daughter, Christian. They are members of First United Methodist Church.